During 2024-25, we helped young Indonesians to participate in civic issues and government officials to hear young voices via community-developed, local language digital platforms. Thousands of young people from four Indonesian provinces regularly participated in our public participation wikithons, either by submitting entries or by responding to entries submitted by others. Policymakers from multiple government agencies sat on wikithon juries and publicly responded to young people's suggestions. Three wikithons were held in each of four provinces for a total of 12 wikithons. Cumulatively, more than 5 million have used the wikis to date. We were awarded the 2025WSIS prize in the category of local content and language diversity.
